About This Website

This website is real. Yes, I know, it looks like a .pdf document and not a website. Yes, you probably did search for soigneistotallywrong.com and it said something about how the url is available or whatnot. But that doesn't mean that this isn't a real website. It's the truth. You probably don't believe me. Well, sucks for you. You're just missing out on the truth. This is a real website. It just looks fake, that's all.

Soigné is Totally Wrong – Today

Soigné is a very incorrect rodent. Beauty is a trending topic. She really needs to shut her trap. You hear that, Soigné? Stop bossing Sinai around. You can go sit in your smelly little servant's closet and sulk all you want, but you are WRONG. Just admit it. Really, you are wrong. I mean, this is a website all about how wrong you are. Everyone knows you are incorrect in your thinking. Why do you have to be so stubborn? No one wants to hear about gobble warning. No one even knows what that means. And as for peace signs, those are so last year. Seriously, girl, I thought you were okay. But it turns out you aren't. So stop spreading false rumors cuz no one even believes you anymore. You are so wrong. I don't even know how to tell you, that's how incorrect you are. If you could kindly accept that you are wrong, then the world would be a much better place, and we could get on with life all nice and happily. But since you are very unwilling to see your faults, well, then, I guess we're just going to have to go on all sad because you are too stubborn to see how wrong you are. I hope you're happy because you have made me really unhappy. #badsister #soigneistotallywrong #stubborn #unhappy

I Have a Bad Feeling About Soigné – Yesterday

I don't know, I just feel like she's going to be really wrong about something and then not admit to being a totally incorrect individual. I might be wrong, I might be right. I just... have a feeling. #gutfeeling #soigne

Beauty Products Are All the Rage! – Nudiustertian

Who doesn't like feeling beautiful? I mean, it's cool to be all natural and glowing, but when it comes to being in public, you have to look like you're from a magazine (if you don't want to get shunned). No one likes natural looking people. That's so last millennium. Actually, even the people a thousand years ago hated those who tried to express their natural beauty instead of turning to synthetic and artificial products that only made you look like a clown. And who doesn't want to be a clown? Clowns are so funny and entertaining and not at all scary! The only bad part about clowns is that they have huge feet that probably get stuck in doors all the time. But beauty is worth a couple stubbed toes. No one looks at your feet anyways, so unless you're wearing sandals, no one is going to see your gross looking black and blue bruised toes. And since you won't be wearing sandals after stubbing your toe due to concern about stubbing it yet again and not having even a little padding, no one will be able to see your rather unattractive banged-up toe. See? It's all good! If you do want to wear sandals, well, then you can use some foundation to make it look like your toe is okay, and that'll work just as well. Beauty products to the rescue! Thank goodness for beauty products. If someone ever said that they were less important than turkeys or something like that, I think they wouldn't like what they ended up getting into. #beautyproducts #stubbedtoe #turkeyssucck
